

Attention High School Juniors and Sophomores: Learn How to Interpret Your Verbal October 2020 PSAT Scores & Use This Knowledge to Prep for the SAT!

Overview: The PSAT report provides valuable insight into a student's academic strengths and challenges. Doing a thorough assessment of your PSAT score report should be the first step in your individual SAT study plan. This workshop will cover the verbal PSAT report review.

Choose from two dates:

Date: Wednesday, January 6th
Time: 6-8pm

Date: Saturday, January 9th
Time: 10am-12pm

Location: Virtual, Zoom

Price: $10

Instructor: Eileen Sullivan Studdert

In this 2 hour, hands-on workshop, students will:

- Identify their authentic strengths and challenge areas
- Comprehend the Key Differences between the PSAT and SAT
- Review the structure, scoring, question difficulty, pacing and process of elimination strategies necessary to reach top test score potential
- Identify the characteristics of "right" and "wrong" answer choices
- Understand passage organization to evaluate author's purpose.
- Deconstruct syntax and diction to spot rhetorical style and tone.

By the end of this session, students will have a clear understanding about the format and function of the test, their strengths and error patterns, and an individualized study plan to best help them prepare for the SAT.

Register for the workshop at:

<https://studdertcollegeprep.com/>

About the Instructor:

Eileen Sullivan Studdert is Educational Director for Performance Prep & College Admissions, a higher education tutoring company located in Southbury, CT. Eileen is a certified, tenured English Teacher with a Masters in English Education from Fordham University. She earned her Independent Educational Consulting Certificate through the University of California at Irvine. Eileen is also an Associate Member of the International Educational Consulting Association and has visited over 250 colleges in the past four years. She is a veteran SAT/ACT Coach, providing one-on-one and small group instruction for clients in Southbury, Middlebury, Newtown, Oxford, New Fairfield, Watertown, Shelton, and Brookfield.

